

Session 2-The God Who Does Not Wipe Out Rebels

“[T]he entire drama of the Bible’s storyline turns on understanding how abominable sin is and what must be done to end it.”

In the unfolding epic that is the Bible, we see the horrific effects of humanity’s sin and God’s plan and purpose in dealing with it. But what is it that makes sin so terrible? To be sure, sin and its effects are often dreadful and readily apparent, but that is not always the case. What makes sin so bad is that it is defiance of the very One who fashioned this world and all who live in it; namely, God.

Questions for tonight:

In Genesis 3, what makes the initial question that the serpent asks Eve so disgusting, so essentially evil?

How, in Genesis 3, does human defiance of God end up in broken human relationships?

According to the Bible, what do we as human beings most need? What do you most need?

You can access these lectures in audio and video form on line at:

<http://thegospelcoalition.org/blogs/tgc/2010/07/29/audio-and-video-for-d-a-carsons-the-god-who-is-there/>

Check out the church web site for lesson updates.

If you have questions that you would like for Richie or Jay to address, just ask us or email us:

johnayounts@bellsouth.net

jrbatsonjr@gmail.com